

CENSUS OF  NEW ZEALAND,
20th April, 1926.

HOUSEHOLDER'S DWELLING SCHEDULE.

This Census is taken under the authority of the Census and Statistics Act, 1910, and regulations. Schedules must be filled in completely and accurately, under a penalty of £20. All information will be treated as confidential, and any person divulging it is liable to a penalty of £20. The Dwelling Schedule is to be filled up by the occupier or person in charge of the dwelling, and, with a Family and/or Personal Schedule(s) attached, handed to the Census Sub-Enumerator, who will call for it as soon after the 20th April as possible. Where a dwelling is occupied by different families in separate flats or apartments, each flat or apartment is to be regarded as a distinct dwelling in so far as a separate Dwelling Schedule and Family and/or Personal Schedule(s) are required.
